

Crake River Flows

This graph shows the flows measured by the hydrograph on the River Crake at Low Nibthwaite over a 5 year period. It shows the typically low flows during summer which often prevent the fish from running. 2005 was a wet year with excellent fishing conditions from August onwards.

These flows are all downstream of the lake which has a very significant moderating effect. A graph for the Duddon would look very different.

